FROM : Senior Representative, []
SUBJECT: GENERAL—SHAM/OBOPUS
SPECIFIC—Discharge of JBPARSON Intransigents

DATE 24 February 1954
INFO: [] ([])
Frankfurt []
Munich []

REFERENCE: SFRAN-4146, 19 February 1954

1. Upon his arrival in Frankfurt during the week of 15 February [] met with [] and members of his staff to discuss the problem of the XNMALEDICT insurgents in JBPARSON.

2. It was []'S opinion that, since he had advised USAREUR authorities more than a year ago that KUBARK had no further political interests in organizations such as JBPARSON, direct intervention would not be welcomed by USAREUR authorities. [] was also concerned with the problem of disposal of eighty members of JBPARSON, should they be discharged, and did not believe it would be wise to throw them on the local economy.

3. [] therefore suggested that [] and [] visit USAREUR headquarters in Heidelberg and discuss the matter with Chief, Labor Service Division. He urged, however, that KUBARK accept a compromise wherein the ringleaders would be discharged and an effort made to save the rank and file of the MALEDICT members of JBPARSON.

4. [] and [] presented the case to the Chief, Labor Service Division, USAREUR, Heidelberg, who took the position that he was most anxious to cooperate with KUBARK for the good of all concerned. He agreed that -- if G-2, under whose jurisdiction requested discharges fall, would also agree -- the following program would be followed:

The ringleaders of the MALEDICT intransigent group in JBPARSON would be discharged. ([] was to cable the names after rechecking in E 11.)

b. MALAMENT and selected political leaders (pro-HTCURIO) would be allowed to visit JBPARSON following the discharge of the ringleaders, in an attempt to win over the MALEDICT rank and file to the HTNEIGH cause.

5. During the meeting with USAREUR the Identity Document now being issued to members of HTNEIGH was discussed with the Chief, Labor Service Division, who thought well of the idea. It was decided that [] should prepare documents for all members of JBPARSON and send them to [], KUBARK liaison officer at USAREUR headquarters in Heidelberg. He, in turn, would pass them on to Chief, Labor Service Division, for distribution to the elements in JBPARSON who wish to pledge their loyalty to the aims of the KUBARK-sponsored HTNEIGH.

6. After giving the matter further thought, it is []'S belief that MALAMENT should carry these Identity Documents to JBPARSON at the time of his visit and issue them to the elements who wish to pledge their allegiance to HTNEIGH in a ceremony, which would probably strengthen MALAMENT'S position considerably. Will Frankfurt station please ask [] to check with Chief, Labor Service Division, USAREUR, to find out whether or not this procedure meets with his approval. In the event that OBOPUS/ [] has no further word from [] prior to MALAMENT'S departure, the matter will be handled in this fashion.

7. The names of the four insurgent MALEDICT ringleaders (Caush Basho, Adnan Ypi, Rustem Kucika, and Kasem Alimehmeti) were cabled to Frankfurt station by [] on 24 February, with the request that OBOPUS/ [] be notified when the discharges have been accomplished and MALAMENT and his party may visit JBPARSON.
